

Information Days - 2020 Entry

Our free Information Days are a key component of our enquiry and application process which our prospective applicants find helpful and informative and we actively encourage attendance at one of these days to support your decision making and application. These events offer the opportunity to visit the Institute in person, to meet with key staff including Programme Leaders, Directors and support staff and to find out more about the training programmes, our ethos and approach to training and to view our buildings and facilities.

If you are interested in studying at Postgraduate Level, the following dates are currently available: This is an all-day event starting at 9.30am inclusive until 3.30pm

BSc (Hons) Only

The academic entry requirement for the BSc (Hons) in Counselling and Psychotherapy is evidence of successful study at A' level, NVQ level 3, or equivalent standard. (Our Foundation Access course provides evidence of study at this level). Applicants are also required to have completed a basic counselling skills course of a minimum of 30 hours. Applications can be made from those who have had significant life and work experiences, but who might not have the necessary academic qualifications. Such applications will be considered on an individual basis.*

The undergraduate information days also caters for those without counselling skills training who want to develop skills their by completing our Foundation Access course, or our Counselling Concepts course. There are further personal and professional entry requirements which are outlined on the individual course pages on our website www.spti.net.

These one-day events are free of charge and include a buffet lunch (£15 reservation fee is required to secure your place and is refundable on attendance). Due to the limited number of places available on the day, bookings are only confirmed upon receipt of the completed booking form and the reservation fee.
