

SPTI Diploma in Clinical Supervision

Friday 22nd February 2019
Professional Training in Supervision

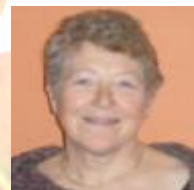

Academic Level: Equivalent to Postgraduate-7
Validation: SPTI Certificate
Start Date: Friday 22nd February 2019
Attendance: 9:30-16:30 Fri, Sat and Sun

Dr Lorraine Price, Programme Leader:
SPTI Diploma in Clinical Supervision
MSc Integrative Psychotherapy

Lorraine's original career was in the Civil Service and Local Government, eventually specialising in staff training. It was through this role that she became interested in psychology and counselling and undertook a PG Dip in Counselling, followed by the Masters programme in Integrative Psychotherapy at the Institute, completing her SPTI studies with the Diploma in Clinical Supervision. After working on the Integrative programme as a tutor, she became the MSc Integrative Programme Leader in 2010. It has been a journey that she continues to cherish. Her aim as Programme Leader is to help others to develop in their chosen career and become professional and ethical practitioners who are assets to the profession. As well as teaching, Lorraine runs a busy private practice of Psychotherapy and Supervision and is an EMDR practitioner. Lorraine successfully completed her Research Doctorate in Psychology in 2014, studying the effects and treatment of early infantile trauma upon clients in psychotherapy and therapeutic regression. She has had two Psychotherapy journal articles published.

Rosemary Langford-Bellaby, Former Head of Training
Tutor: SPTI Diploma in Clinical Supervision
Tutor: MSc Integrative Psychotherapy

Rosemary has extensive training and experience as a counsellor, psychotherapist, supervisor and trainer and is trained in both Gestalt Psychotherapy and Integrative Psychotherapy, and has completed additional elements of training in Transactional Analysis, Behavioural Therapy and Client-Centred Counselling. She was previously course leader of the Person-Centred Counselling programme at The Sherwood Institute. In all of the different trainings Rosemary related to her interest in the interface between spirituality and psychology. She has been a tutor on the Counselling Programme at St. John's Theological College in Nottingham and completed a second MA in Theology and Pastoral Care. In addition to psychotherapy training, Rosemary has trained as a supervisor and trainer and currently tutors on the Supervision training at SPTI. Prior to this Rosemary was a qualified Psychiatric Nurse and has more than twenty years' experience working in the NHS, including a specialist role as a Nurse Therapist. She is accredited with the UKCP and runs a private practice working with individuals, couples and groups.

The Sherwood Psychotherapy Training Institute
2018/19 SPTI Diploma in Clinical Supervision

Why choose the Sherwood Institute?

The provision of high quality supervision is now, more than ever a high priority for training organisations, especially those registered with accrediting bodies. Many statutory and voluntary organisations look for suitably trained and qualified supervisors to support the work of the practitioner.

By choosing to complete the Diploma in Clinical Supervision with SPTI, you can be confident that you will be receiving a comprehensive and In-depth training provision where we have fantastic attendance levels and student retention of 100%. Our course is delivered by highly experienced and qualified trainers and represents outstanding CPD value.

SPTI has, and continues to work closely with UKCP in all areas of continuing professional development including the UKCP Register of Supervisors. Rosemary Langford-Bellaby SPTI Training Manager, and Tutor for both the Diploma in Clinical Supervision and the MSc Integrative Psychotherapy has been involved from the onset.

We also appreciate that combining clinical work alongside the Diploma can be demanding, therefore, our students are permitted an extended period to accumulate the required clinical hours required for the training.

Supervision Registers

UKCP Registered Psychotherapists, upon successful completion of the SPTI Diploma are eligible to progress without delay onto the UKCP Directory of Approved Supervisors due to SPTI being a Member Organisation of UKCP. Successful completion leads to automatic nomination to the UKCP Register of Supervisors unlike our competitor courses where access to UKCP register would only be granted via a lengthy grand-parenting agreement.

BACP Accredited Counsellors can also be confident that the SPTI Diploma training content demonstrates over and above the requirements required for BACP Supervision training. <https://www.bacp.co.uk/research/resources/supervision-curriculum.php>

SPTI Programme

Our programme consists of 15 training days over 5 weekends and offers an SPTI Diploma in Clinical Supervision (taught at academic level 7) from one of the largest UKCP accrediting member organisations.

This course is suitable for those wishing to expand their current skills and knowledge in working with people in a supervisory capacity. It is suitable for those wishing to incorporate new knowledge and skills, or to expand their current work role, or for those wishing to introduce or to enhance supervision within private practice.

The course is based on both a relational and a developmental approach, and includes:

- Creating an effective working alliance.
- The learning styles of supervisees.
- Styles of interventions – which styles suit which supervisee's.
- Parallel process in supervision, including transference, counter-transference and projective identification.
