Sat 16th Sept 2017 – Sat 21th Oct 2017 (5 x Saturdays 9.30pm-4.30pm)

Due to popular demand, we are offering this ABC course in a new location.

This ABC Awards accredited qualification provides a recognised introduction to counselling concepts and skills. It also provides opportunities to enhance a range of verbal and communication skills which can be utilised in many work environments. This GCSE level equivalent (Level 2) course is open to all and will be of interest to you if:

- You would like to enhance and improve your verbal and communication skills
- You would like to experience working in groups of different sizes
- You would like to enhance your career prospects through extra qualifications
- You would like a realistic understanding of the nature of counselling training
- You are undertaking voluntary work or work in the care sector
- You are seeking a career change
- You are returning to study
- You would like to enhance your self-awareness

The course consists of 3 units, which are internally assessed and externally moderated.

Unit 1 The professional context of counselling
Unit 2 Communication skills in helping relationships
Unit 3 An introduction to personal development

Places: 15 Course fee: £350
Fee includes the registration charge with ABC Awards and the official certificate.

Anissa Chung, Reg. MBACP accredited, UKCP Registered Psychotherapist
MSc Integrative Psychotherapy & Counselling, Dip Supervision (SPTI)

Programme Leader: ABC Awards Counselling Concepts ATSM Tutor: MSc Person Centred

Anissa is an experienced therapist and a qualified supervisor. She has a well-established private practice for adults and has also worked with young people in a school setting. Her approach is Integrative, with a focus on the developmental-relational model. As a trained EMDR therapist, she also works with issues of trauma. In 2010, Anissa joined the Sherwood Institute as a trainer. Her passion is to enhance personal development in both students and clients alike. She finds it exciting to accompany those who want to explore their own journey and experience the possibility of personal growth and transformation.
